1. On the last date, after the matter was heard at some length, learned counsel for the respondents was granted time to obtain instructions. Today, unfortunately, learned counsel for the respondents is not in position to tell the Court as to whether as contended by the petitioner, there was any merger of grade pay which was received by the petitioner with the grade pay of higher post. He prays for and is granted time to obtain further instructions.
2. List on 22.05.2024, on which date, the concerned Divisional Personal Officer (DPO) will remain present in Court to assist the Court.
