The case is pending for admission/denial and marking of exhibits since many dates but Ld. Counsel for plaintiff has not filed Joint Document Schedule despite repeated directions. Ld. Counsel for plaintiff has stated that the file has been misplaced in the office of main counsel and it could not be traced due to which Joint Document Schedule could not be filed.

Ld. Counsel for plaintiff is directed to inspect the file and obtain CD of the case and last opportunity is granted to plaintiff for filing Joint Document Schedule after obtaining comments and signatures from Ld. Counsel for defendants no. 1 and 3 within four weeks.

Parties are directed to file hard copy of pleadings and documents on record with the Registry as last and final opportunity.

Be fixed for admission/denial and marking of exhibits as last and final opportunity to all the parties on 05.12.2024, failing which heavy cost will be imposed upon defaulting parties on the next date.
