CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE YOGESH KHANNA

ORDER

% 11.11.2022

1. This petition is filed for setting aside the impugned order dated 10.03.2021 passed by the learned Revisional Court whereby the interim maintenance to be paid to respondent and her children was increased from Rs.12,000/- p.m. to Rs.40,000/- per month.
2. The reasons for increasing such interim maintenance are mentioned in paragraphs No.16,18, 19, and 20 of the impugned order. The learned counsel for petitioner submits no doubt, the petitioner at one time was earning a handsome amount, but later he got a job but was terminated and has annexed a certificate at page No.82 of the paperbook.
3. The learned counsel for respondent submits it is a false certificate and he is still earning a handsome amount and can provide best education to his children. The learned counsel for respondent refers to photographs annexed with his counter depicting the petitioner being sitting with his second wife in a car.

4. It is argued the petitioner has concealed his income before the learned Trial Court, but the learned Revisional Court had taken into consideration all facts and rightly passed an impugned order directing the petitioner to pay Rs.40,000/- per month.

5. For further arguments, as requested, list on 21.11.2022 in first ten cases of advance list.
