CM APPL. 49117/2025

1. Present application has been moved by petitioner seeking release of amount deposited by judgment debtor before the learned NCDRC.
2. The Execution Petition is already pending adjudication before learned NCDRC and there is some dispute with respect to the extent of decretal amount. It is only on account of abovesaid mismatch of the calculation that the present petition has been filed by complainant, as according to him, he is entitled to much more amount than what has been calculated by learned NCDRC.
3. Fact remains that a sum of Rs.2,76,01,002/- has already been deposited by opposite party before the Executing Commission.
4. The present application is disposed of with direction to petitioner to move appropriate application before the learned Executing Commission and
