CM APPL. 48937/2026 (seeks condonation of delay in filing brief note of submissions along with relevant records filed vide diary no. E-305126/2026)

1. For the grounds and reasons stated in the application, the delay in filing the brief note of submissions is condoned. Though the brief note of submissions exceeds the limit of three pages, as directed vide order dated 25th March, 2026, and is stated to run into five pages, the same is permitted to be taken on record.
2. Mr. Rajiv Shukla, counsel for the Respondents, is instructed to follow up with the Registry to ensure that the written submissions, along with the annexures thereto, are placed on record before the next date of hearing.

3. Counsel for the Petitioner submits that no written response to the documents annexed to the Respondents' written submissions is necessary and that he shall address oral submissions thereon.

4. Accordingly, the present application is disposed of.

W.P.(C) 9415/2020

5. At joint request of counsel for the parties, re-notify on 13th October, 2026.
