1. Earlier the petitioner's parole was rejected on the ground that he had jumped the furlough.
2. It is pointed out by the learned counsel for the State that on 10.12.2025, the petitioner's application of furlough has been forwarded by the jail authorities.
3. In view of the aforesaid subsequent development, the earlier rejection should not be an impediment for petitioner for further consideration for furlough/parole.
4. With these observations, the petition stands disposed of.
