ORDER

% 11.04.2022

Matter is taken up through physical hearing as well as video conferencing.

No report of service of LR No. (iv) has been received yet. At request, fresh summons be issued to LR No. (iv) on filing of PF by all permissible modes including electronic mode.

The original WILL has not been filed by the petitioner on record.

Learned counsel for the petitioner is directed to file original WILL on record and the concerned official of the Registry is directed to keep it and safe custody.

Learned counsel for respondent no.1/State has stated that status report has been filed by the concerned SDM of Kalkaji, South-East District, Delhi that the petitioner is not cooperating with the concerned official and documents of property have not been provided due to which valuation report cannot be finalized.

Learned counsel for the plaintiff has stated that the certain documents are in possession of the eldest brother of the petitioner who is residing in the property and he is at loggerheads with the petitioner due to which he could not get the documents for valuation report of the suit property.

Perusal of the file reveals that in the Memo of Parties, name of respondents/LRs of deceased have not been mentioned.

Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes to file the appropriate application with amended Memo of Parties for making all the LRs of deceased as party to the suit.

Put up for completion of pleadings on 25th July, 2022.
