ORDER

% 07.09.2022

Learned counsel representing the Union of India has prayed for accommodation in order to obtain instructions in respect of the averments as made in the writ petition. The prayer as made is granted.

The Court is informed that the fifth respondent who has been arrayed here is not the contractor which is constructing the stretch of the National Highway in question. Additionally, the Court notes that no effective relief is sought against respondent No.6. In any case, the issues which arise here do not warrant the presence of either respondent Nos. 5 or 6. Consequently, the said respondents shall stand deleted from the array of parties. Let learned counsel for the petitioner place on the record an amended memo of parties on or before the next date fixed.

List again on 13.10.2022.
