Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that despite the fact that petitioner had raised an objection as to the failure of the Child Welfare Committee in determining the age of the child, the Appellate Court has sustained the order of the Child Welfare Committee.

Learned counsel submits that the Appellate Court has erroneously recorded that the age of the child was determined on the basis of a school certificate whereas no such determination of age was done by the Child Welfare Committee.

List for consideration on 26.08.2019.

The records of the Child Welfare Committee as well as the Appellate Court be requisitioned.
