%

1. Learned counsel for the Respondents submits that letters dated 06.06.2022 and 07.06.2022 have since been withdrawn and Petitioner is not being called to join any further inquiry at the moment.

2. Learned counsel further submits that as per his instructions, complaint on which said notices were issued, was a copy of the complaint which had been sent to the Head Office and had subsequently been transferred to the Head of the School for action. She submits that since the action was taken on the complaint, which had been received by the Head of the School directly, the complainant has given a letter withdrawing this complaint stating that she is satisfied with the action already taken and does not want any further action to be taken.
