1. The present appeal under Section 19 of the Family Courts Act seeks to assail the order dated 10.08.2023 passed by the learned Family Court, South-East District, Saket District Court, New Delhi in HMA No. 997/2021. Vide the impugned order, the learned Family Court has allowed the application under Section 24 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1954, filed by the respondent/wife, by directing the appellant/husband to pay a monthly sum of Rs.75,000/- to the respondent towards maintenance for herself and the minor daughter of the parties, who is presently living with the respondent.
2. On the last date, after taking into account the admitted position that the appellant was in default of even the reduced interim maintenance fixed by this Court vide its order dated 31.07.2024, time was granted to the learned senior counsel for the appellant to obtain instructions as to why even the said reduced interim maintenance fixed by this Court was not being paid by the appellant.

3. Today, learned senior counsel for the appellant submits that a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- towards arrears has already been remitted to the respondent towards arrears of maintenance and a further sum of Rs.50,000/- each will be remitted to her today as also on 03.03.2025.
4. List on 04.03.2025.
