CM APPL. 51057/2024.

1. The instant application has been filed on behalf of the applicants/appellants for extension of time to deposit the amount as per the directions passed by this Court vide order dated 10th July, 2024.
2. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the applicants submitted that due to bona-fide reasons as stated in paragraph no. 3 of the instant application, the applicants could not deposit the amount as per the directions of this Court. It is further submitted that the Demand Draft has already been prepared and the applicants may be permitted to deposit the same with the Registrar General of this Court within three days.
3. Heard learned counsel appearing on behalf of the applicants and perused the contents made in the instant application as well as order dated 10th July, 2024.

4. This Court finds sufficient reasons to allow the instant application and to extend the time to deposit the amount in terms of order dated 10th July, 2024.

5. In view of above facts and circumstances, the applicants are directed to deposit the amount as per the directions passed by this Court vide 10th July, 2024 with the Registrar General of the Delhi High Court within three days from today.

6. Accordingly, the instant application stands disposed of.

MAC.APP. 334/2024.
