Appearance:

For Petitioner: Petitioner in person.

For Respondents: Mrs. Avnish Ahlawat, SC, GNCTD with Ms. Aliza, Mr. N.K. Singh & Mr. Mohnish Sehrawat, Advs. for DOE in Item Nos. 79 to 83.
Mr. Anuj Aggarwal, Amicus Curie.

CORAM:
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJEEV NARULA

O R D E R

% 17.01.2026

W.P.(C) 1767/2007

1. The relief sought by the Petitioner challenging his transfer from the parent school to another school has been rendered infructuous, as the Petitioner has already retired. The Petitioner, however, submits that the other reliefs sought in the petition continue to survive.

2. At this stage, it is noted that since the Petitioner has already retired, the Amicus Curiae submits that the school is obligated to release the Petitioner's retirement dues. On this issue, counsel appearing for the school submits that, pursuant to departmental proceedings, a major penalty has been imposed upon the Petitioner, the approval whereof is pending consideration before the Directorate of Education ('DoE'). Subject to the above, it is submitted that the retirement dues of the Petitioner shall be calculated. Counsel further states that the permissible retirement dues payable to the Petitioner shall be examined and, if found admissible, disbursed accordingly. For this purpose, the Petitioner is directed to meet the Accounts Officer and furnish all necessary information for the computation of his retirement dues on 20th January, 2026.

3. Mrs. Avnish Ahlawat, SC for GNCTD, submits that she shall also verify the status of the pending approvals and seeks time to do so.

4. Re-notify on 23rd March, 2026.
