ORDER

30.04.2026

1. This hearing has been conducted through hybrid mode.
2. The present matter has been received on office note, in view of the letter dated 25th April, 2026, received from the learned Trial Court seeking extension for a period of six months.
3. The operative portion of the order dated 07th July, 2025 of this Court reads as follows:

“6. Keeping in mind the facts presented on record, and with the consent of both the sides, the present petition is disposed of with request to the learned Trial Court to consider and dispose of the applications moved under Order VI Rule 16 CPC, as well as the aspect related to injunction within a period of eight weeks from the date it takes up the matter.”

4. Learned counsel for the parties submit that they have no objection if the learned Trial Court is granted an extension of six (06) months to decide the said applications.

5. Keeping in view the letter of the trial court and the submissions made by learned counsel for the parties, the learned Trial Court is granted an extension of six (06) months to do the needful as directed vide order dated 07th July, 2025.
