1. Ms. Apurva Nagpal, counsel appearing on behalf of the Judgment Debtor states that, she has been instructed in this matter. She states that she needs to file objections.
2. However, considering that the decree was passed in 2018, and the property has still not been handed over by the Judgment Debtors to the Decree Holder, as also considering that Judgment Debtors have consistently evaded notice for the last two years, the Court is not inclined to grant them liberty to file their objections.
3. Counsel can place the case of the Judgment Debtor on the next date of hearing, for seeking this liberty.
4. Mr. Ghanshyam Sharma, Judgment Debtor 1, shall be present in the Court on the next date of hearing.

5. List on 2nd April 2025.
6. Order be uploaded on the website of this Court.
