ORDER
20.01.2020

1. Though written statement has been filed, replication has not been filed.
2. Learned counsel for the plaintiff submits that the copy of the written statement was served to him on 13th January, 2020 and he would file the replication within three weeks of receipt of the written statement.
3. A perusal of the record itself reveals that the present suit was filed by the plaintiff who is the son of the defendant Nos.1 and 2, after the defendant Nos.1 and 2 had filed a petition before the Maintenance Tribunal under the Senior Citizens Act so as to avert any order being passed therein. The interim order dated 16th October, 2019 is extended till the next date of hearing clarifying that this order will be subject to any order passed by the CS(OS) 528/2019 competent authority or Court of law in respect to the possession of the suit property by the parties.

4. Replication be filed within three weeks of the service of the written statement along with the affidavit of admission/denial.

5. List the suit for admission/denial of the documents before the learned Joint Registrar on 24th February, 2020.

6. List the suit for settling the issues and application for final hearing before Court on 31st March, 2020.

7. Learned counsel for the plaintiff submits that since the dispute is between the son and the parents, the same be referred to the mediation. Learned counsel for the defendants on instructions from defendant Nos.1 and 2, who are present in Court, has no objection thereto.

8. Parties are directed to appear before the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre for a negotiated settlement on 24th January, 2020 at 2.00 PM in the first instance and thereafter as and when directed by the learned Mediator.

9. Report of the learned Mediator be submitted before the next date of hearing before the Court.
