CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE CHANDRA DHARI SINGH

ORDER
29.04.2024

%

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent No.4 made an oral prayer seeking his discharge from the proceedings as the respondent No.4 has nothing to do with the suit property. Reliance has been placed upon paragraph 2 of the order dated 30th October, 2023 to contend to the effect that the learned Predecessor Bench of this Court had also taken note of the same, however, due to some objections raised on behalf of the appellant, no formal order could be passed that day for discharge of the respondent No.4.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent No.4 submitted that since the respondent No.4 has nothing to do with the suit property, therefore, he may be discharged.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the appellant, on instructions, submits that he does not oppose the prayed made by the respondent No.4 seeking discharge from the present matter.

In view of the submissions made on behalf of the respondent No.4 with no objections on behalf of the appellant and on a perusal of the order dated 30th October, 2023, the oral request made by the respondent No.4 seeking his discharge is allowed and the respondent no.4 is directed to be deleted from the array of parties.

In view of the deletion of respondent No.4 from the array of parties, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the appellant is directed to file amended memo of parties within a period of two weeks.

List on 28th October, 2024.
