I.A. No. 32030/2024

This is an application moved on behalf of the plaintiff seeking condonation of delay in filing replication / written statement to the written statement / counter-claim filed by the opposite party.

No objection is raised.

Hence, present IA is allowed and disposed of.

Replication-cum-written statement filed on behalf of the plaintiff is taken on record.

I.A. No. 21022/2023

This is an application under Order XXXIX Rule 1 & 2.

No reply has been filed on behalf of the defendant.

I.A. No. 25517/2023

This is an application under Order VIII Rule 10.

Learned counsel for plaintiff submitted that present application was filed before the amendment of the plaint and therefore, the present application may be disposed of being infructuous.

Hence, the captioned IA stands disposed of being infructuous.

CS(OS) 673/2023

Written statement to the amended plaint has already been filed and replication thereto has also been filed.

It is further submitted by learned counsel for defendant that she had also filed her counter-claim along with the written statement but same has not been given a separate number by the Registry. However, as per learned counsel for plaintiff, he had also filed the written statement to the counter-claim in the form of replication as plaintiff's replication contains the written statement of the counter-claim of opposite party.

It is further clarified by learned counsel for defendant that she had also not filed her counter-claim separately but same has been incorporated in her written statement as written statement has been filed with title 'Written Statement to the amended plaint with Counter-claim'.

Let the pleadings be completed in accordance with law regarding the counter-claim.

As the matter is listed before the Hon'ble Court on 10.07.2024. Hence, put up before the Hon'ble Court on the date already fixed i.e. 10.07.2024 for further directions.
