ORDER

[Physical Hearing/Hybrid Hearing (as per request)]

1. The wife i.e., Ms Shashi Gupta, is present in person. She seeks accommodation on the ground that her Advocate, i.e., Ms Anu Narula is bereaved.

2. Mr Rashid Hashmi, learned counsel, who appears on behalf of the husband, has joined the proceedings through video conferencing. Although on the previous date, i.e., 06.03.2024, we had directed that the husband would remain physically present, there has been no compliance with the said direction.

3. Mr Hashmi informs us that the husband is suffering from mental health issues and, therefore, is not able to remain physically present.

3.1 If this was the reason, ordinarily, Mr Hashmi should have moved an application for exemption.

4. Furthermore, as noted on the previous date, i.e., 06.03.2024, according to the wife, arrears towards maintenance amounting to Rs.2,13,600/- remain outstanding.

5. Mr Hashmi will ensure that the husband remits the said amount to the wife.

6. Accordingly, list the above-captioned matters on 19.09.2024.

7. On the next date of hearing, the husband will remain present in Court. In case, he is unable to remain physically present, an appropriate application will be moved in that behalf.
