I.A. 46687/2024 (Exemption from filing original copies of documents)

1. The present is an application under Section 151 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 ("CPC"), on behalf of the plaintiff, seeking exemption from filing original documents, copies of which are dim and have improper margin.

2. Exemption is granted, subject to all just exceptions.
3. Plaintiff shall file legible, clear, and translated copies of the documents, on which the plaintiff may seek to place reliance, before the next date of hearing.
4. Accordingly, the present application is disposed of.

I.A. No. 46688/2024 (Application seeking condonation of delay of 32 days in re-filing I.A. No. 46686/2024)

5. This is an application for condonation of delay of 32 days in re-filing I.A. No. 46686/2024.
6. Considering the submissions made before this Court, the delay of 32 days in re-filing, is condoned.
7. Application is, accordingly, disposed of.

I.A. No. 46686/2024 (Application on behalf of the defendant for rejection of plaint)

8. The present application has been filed on behalf of the defendant under Order VII Rule 11 read with Section 151 of CPC for rejection of the plaint.
9. Learned counsel appearing for the defendant submits that the plaintiff has not complied with the Pre-Institution Mediation, as enunciated under Section 12A(1) of the Commercial Courts Act, 2015. It is submitted that it is settled law that mere filing of an application for interim relief is not sufficient to waive the Pre-Institution Mediation. The urgency ought to be genuine and from the pleadings it should be established that the urgency is imminent.
10. Issue notice.
11. Notice is accepted by learned counsel appearing for the plaintiff.

12. Let reply be filed within a period of four weeks. Rejoinder thereto, if any, be filed within a period of two weeks, thereafter.
13. List on 20th December, 2024, i.e., the date already fixed.
