ORDER

09.12.2022

1. By an order dated 02.12.2022, summons in the suit and notice of I.A. 20401/2022 were issued to the defendants.
2. The defendant Nos. 3 and 4, being the sisters of the late husband of plaintiff No.1, have entered appearance through counsel. Mr. Sumit Kumar Mishra, learned counsel for defendant No. 3 and 4, states that the said defendants have not forwarded or uploaded the interview of their father (defendant No.1) with the defendant No.5 to anyone and will not do so. Their undertaking to this effect is recorded.
3. Ms. Stuti Gupta, learned counsel for the plaintiffs, has filed an affidavit dated 06.12.2022, in which it is stated that she has personally attempted to inform the defendant Nos. 1 and 2 telephonically and sent them the suit papers by WhatsApp and courier. Her attempts to contact them telephonically have been unsuccessful as the call has been cancelled at their end. Ms. Gupta has filed the documents in support of this contention. Ms. Gupta has also attempted to serve defendant No.5- NTTV Bharat Media Pvt. Ltd., the concerned television channel, and states that she received a telephone call in response to the e-mail from telephone No. 8009051000. She is directed to place a further affidavit on record in this connection and also serve a copy of the suit papers and the orders passed by this Court upon Mr. Kirtiman Singh, learned Standing Counsel for the Union of India (defendant No.6 herein), who is requested to take instructions on the relief sought by the plaintiffs in the application.

4. The interim order dated 02.12.2022 will continue until the next date of hearing.

5. List on 15.12.2022.

6. Mr. Mishra states that his clients will also attempt to inform defendant Nos. 1 and 2, who are their parents with regard to the next date of hearing.
