CS(COMM) 644/2024 & CS(COMM) 762/2024

1. Learned counsel for the plaintiff states that the injunction applications have to be heard in these suits.

3. She, however, raises the grievance that the defendant has not been appearing in the proceedings at the High Court at Calcutta, which is causing prejudice to the plaintiff.

4. Mr. Kiratraj Sadana, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the defendants, states that the defendants undertake to remain present before the High Court at Calcutta and duly prosecute their injunction application and suit proceedings.

5. Learned counsel for the defendant undertakes that physical copies of the documents in CS(COMM) 762/2024 will be filed within a period of two (2) weeks to facilitate admission/denial of documents.
