The summons could not be issued to the defendants for want of steps. The counsel for the plaintiff states that the defendant no. 1 to 14 are John Doe sort of websites with no physical addresses and thus their details can be provided by the defendant no. 15 to 23. She thus seeks liberty to have the defendant no. 15 to 23 be first served and once the required details are provided by them, then she will take appropriate steps qua the defendant no. 1 to 14.

Having considered the aforesaid submissions, let summons be issued first to the defendant no. 15 to 23 through emails, subject to the filing of PF. The email service has been ordered keeping in view the fact that these defendants are corporate entities stationed outside the country.

The counsel for the defendant no. 24 & 25 has appeared. He seeks time to file the compliance-affidavit. That be filed in due course.

The defendant no. 26 & 27 are John Doe.
