CS(OS) 649/2019

Learned counsel for D4 has appeared and submits that plaintiff be directed to supply the complete set of paper book so that D4 can file the written statement. He further submits that speed post which sent to defendant No.4 was on a wrong address and he has come to know about the pendency of the suit when he received the application for seeking condonation of delay in filing the written statement moved by D1 to 3 in November, 2022. He further submits that he is not aware about the present suit and has not received complete set of paper book.

No one is present for plaintiff today.

In view of above submissions made, let complete set of paper book be supplied to him via email within a week positively without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the plaintiff to make submissions in this regard.

Put up for completion of pleadings in the suit as well as IA Nos. 19711/2022 and for consideration of IAs 19711/2022, 20249/2022 and 20250/2022 on 10.07.2023.
