CORAM:
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PRATEEK JALAN

% ORDER
18.09.2019

1. An adjournment slip has once again been moved on behalf of both the parties. It is stated that the arguing counsel are not available today.

The last order notes that the suits are more than 15 years old and repeated adjournments have been taken.

2. List on 05.02.2020. Counsel are expected to be ready to argue the matter on that date.

3. The parties shall file their short written submissions. As the three suits are connected, counsel for the parties will file composite written submissions and a convenience compilation of documents, as well as a compilation of case laws on which they wish to rely, to facilitate expeditious hearing of the matter. If possible, the convenience compilation will be jointly prepared, including all the documents to be relied upon by the parties. Counsel for the parties will coordinate with each other in this regard. Submissions and compilations may be filed one week before the next date of hearing.
