Learned counsel for plaintiff has stated that same could not be filed as there were two marriages in his family and the affidavit of evidence of the witness has been sent by courier to Mumbai and the same after signature shall be filed within one week from today. Request for adjournment opposed by learned counsel for defendants who has drawn my attention to previous orders to submit that plaintiff has not filed affidavit by way of evidence insptie of last and final opportunity granted to the plaintiff.

In the interest of justice, another last and final opportunity is granted to plaintiff to file affidavits by way of evidence of remaining witnesses within one week, subject to payment of cost of Rs.25000/- to the defendants (proportionately) and it is made clear that no further opportunity shall be granted to the plaintiff on any ground
