1. The matter has been listed before this Court on the directions dated 15.01.2025 of the Hon'ble Court.
2. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that vide judgment dated 24.07.2018 (impugned order), the learned trial court held that the plaintiffs therein (Smt. Santosh Kumari, Baby Khushi and Master Vipul Kumar) are entitled for recovery of damages/compensation of Rs.23,40,000/- with interest @ 6% per annum from the date of filing of suit till realization from NDPL (now Tata Power Delhi Distribution Ltd.).
3. It is further submitted by the learned counsel for the appellant that against the aforesaid order of the trial court two Regular First Appeals (RFA) were preferred, one by Tata Power Distribution Ltd. against the said Smt. Santosh Kumari, Baby Khushi and Master Vipul Kumar and the appellant/Chandro Devi titled as “Tata Power Delhi Distribution Ltd. vs. Santosh Kumari and Ors.” bearing RFA No.214/2019 and another by the appellant/Chandro Devi in form of the present appeal against the said Smt. Santosh Kumari, Baby Khushi, Master Vipul Kumar and the NDPL.

4. It is further submitted by the learned counsel for the appellant herein that the Hon’ble Court in the aforesaid RFA No.214/2019 has directed the release of the deposited amount which is 50% of the amount awarded by the trial court to the respondent Nos.1 to 3 in the said RFA (who are also respondent Nos.1 to 3 in the present appeal). It is further submitted by the learned counsel for the appellant that in all fairness as only 50% of the awarded amount is lying deposited in RFA No.214/2019 and the said amount, has been directed to be released, she has given no objection for the release of the deposited amount to the respondents therein in the said RFA No.214/2019.

5. It is further submitted by learned counsel for the appellant that now her present appeal is required to be proceeded further on merits. Accordingly, it is prayed that the matter may be listed before the Hon’ble Court.

6. In view of the submissions made today by the learned counsel for the appellant, registry is directed to list the matter before the Hon’ble Court as per roster.
