[Physical Hearing/Hybrid Hearing (as per request)]

1. The appellants have assailed loan repayment decree. The defence set up by the appellants is that the money received was not towards loan but towards investment in business and since the business went into losses, the respondent is not entitled to any money. The learned Trial Court by way of detailed judgment took a view that there is no evidence to show that the said money was an investment.
2. Subject to appellants taking steps within one week, notice through all modes be issued to the respondent returnable on 04.03.2025 before Registrar.
