%

1. Reply filed on behalf of respondents is under objection.
2. Let steps be taken to have the reply be placed on record.
3. If the objection of the Registry is with regard to delay in filing the said reply, the delay stands condoned.
4. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents submits that otherwise, they do not have any objection to the appointment of the Arbitrator.
5. Considering the amount of dispute involved between the parties, which is approximately Rs. 50,00,000/- (Rupees Fifty Lakhs), this Court put to the counsels if the parties wish to explore the avenue of settlement.
6. Learned counsels appearing for the parties have given their consent for referring the matter to mediation.

7. Accordingly, with the consent of the parties, the matter is referred to Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre, to be listed before the learned Mediator on 30th January, 2026.
8. In case the parties are not able to settle the matter, this Court shall proceed to appoint an Arbitrator on the next date.
9. List before the Court on 27th March, 2026.
10. A copy of this order shall be sent to Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre, forthwith.
