There is no appearance on behalf of the petitioner. Respondent has died and no steps have been taken by the petitioner to bring his legal heirs on record. On 29.11.2016, a statement was made by the learned counsel, who was representing the respondent that respondent has expired. The details of the legal heirs were also furnished to the petitioner. However, despite passage of almost two years, the application for substitution has not yet been filed. As the last and final opportunity, let the petitioner file the appropriate application within four weeks, failing which the matter would be placed before the Hon'ble Court for orders on non-prosecution.

Re-notify on 22.11.2018.
