CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANISH DAYAL

ORDER

% 08.05.2025

1. Mr. Chetan Sharma, Additional Solicitor General, appears on behalf of respondent and informs the Court that the Review Petition bearing diary No. 14727/2025, filed before the Supreme Court against dismissal of the SLP has now also been rejected by the order dated 08th April 2025.
2. Accordingly, there cannot be any delay in the compliance of the orders of this Court, which had rejected the writ petition filed against the Central Administrative Tribunal ('CAT') orders passed in 2017.
3. All assertions and suggestions by the ASG relating to the difficulty in compliance and complexity which it involves will not be relevant, considering the history of litigation in this matter and the directions that have been passed and now concluded till the Apex Court.

4. It is now for the Department of Personnel and Training, Government of India, to proceed ahead in the matter. The Court, in exercise of its contempt jurisdiction, is confined to the issues of willful disobedience and non-compliance, and cannot entertain any arguments on merits and inability.
5. List on 11th August 2025.
6. An compliance report shall be filed with a copy to the opposite counsel on or before the next date of hearing.
7. Order be uploaded on the website of this Court.
