CRL.REV.P. 1302/2024, CRL.M.A. 34782/2024 & CRL.M.A. 34783/2024

3. The petitioner challenges the order dated 21.05.2024, pursuant to which the charges were framed against the petitioner under Sections 376(2)(n)/506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.
4. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the allegation against the petitioner was that he sexually assaulted the prosecutrix for around 07 years. He submits that admittedly the prosecutrix and the petitioner are related to each other and there has been inordinate delay in giving the complaint in regard to the alleged sexual assault.
5. He submits that the justification given by the complainant for not reporting the sexual assault at an earlier stage is that the petitioner had threatened to make the prosecutrix's photographs and videos go viral. He submits that the families of the petitioner and prosecutrix were having a dispute in regard to money transactions which led to the false complaint being made by the prosecutrix.

6. He submits that the learned Trial Court has discharged the other accused persons noting that even though the allegation was made that the photos and videos were circulated, no evidence was found. The statement of the friend of the prosecutrix was also recorded where she denied to have seen any such photographs of the prosecutrix.

7. Issue notice.

8. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State accepts notice.
