1. As per the settlement between Petitioner No. 1 (husband) and the Complainant/Respondent No. 2 (wife), the parties have agreed to resume cohabitation. Petitioner No. 1 has undertaken to arrange rented accommodation where he, Respondent No. 2, and their children shall reside together. Since this settlement has been arrived at after a period of three years of separation, this Court is of the opinion that Respondent No. 2 should be granted time to assess whether the arrangement is workable.

3. The Probation Officer attached with the concerned police station is directed to submit a report before the next date of hearing, confirming
