Vide order dated 15.12.2020, plaintiff had prayed that consolidated affidavit of admission/denial to the documents filed by plaintiff may be treated as joint schedule of documents, as it incorporates admission/denial of all the documents on record.

On perusal of Chapter VII Rule 7 A of Delhi High Court Rules, I am of the view that same is mandatorily required to be filed by the parties and cannot be dispensed with.

Accordingly, plaintiff is directed to prepare joint schedule of documents within six weeks and send a copy of the same to the counsels for the contesting defendants through email/ speed post. Further, defendants shall duly acknowledge the same/file objections, if any, within four weeks thereof, failing which, it shall be deemed that they have no objection thereto.

Further, plaintiff is directed to file Joint schedule of documents in terms of amended Delhi High Court rules at least one week prior to the next date through e-filing as well as hard copy thereof. Defendant is directed to duly cooperate with plaintiff in timely preparation of joint schedule of documents.

In case, documents have been filed through e-filing, parties are directed to file hard copies of their documents in the Registry at least one week prior to the next date.

List the matter for admission/denial and marking of exhibits on 24.05.2022 at 12.00 Noon physical hearing.

Main counsel/parties are directed to appear in person on that date for identification of documents. Both sides will bring their respective original documents on next date.
