1. Learned counsel for the Petitioners raises a grievance that regardless of the recommendation/report dated 07.04.2011 given by the Committee constituted by the Respondents, they have not taken any effort to frame the policy.

2. Learned counsel for the Petitioners submitted that leaving the matter pending for such a long time, not only takes away the rights of the Petitioners but also keeps their future in limbo.
2. Mr. Vikram Jetly, learned counsel alongwith Mr. Bhardwaj, appearing for the Respondents prays for and are granted four weeks' time to complete his instructions.
3. It will be required of the respondents to take a concerted and concrete decision, that is, either to go with the recommendations of the Committee or to revisit the recommendations so made. In case, the Respondents take a decision to reject the recommendations of the Committee, they shall do the same while recording brief reasons and place those reasons for perusal of the Court.
4. List these cases on 15.01.2026.
