2. Mr. Vikram Panwar, Advocate enters appearance on behalf of defendant nos. 1 to 3. He states that the defendant nos. 1 to 3 have perused the order dated 18.11.2025 and they do not wish to contest the said order.
3. In view of the aforesaid submissions, the injunction order dated 18.11.2025 is hereby confirmed until the final disposal of the suit.
4. The application stands disposed of.

CS(COMM) 1239/2025

5. Mr. Vikram Panwar, Advocate enters appearance on behalf of defendant nos. 1 to 3. He states that the vakalatnama has been filed last evening and will be brought one record within three (3) days. He states that the defendants concede that the plaintiffs are proprietor of the trademark ASHIRVAD and are willing to concede to the relief of permanent injunction.

6. He states that defendant nos. 1 to 3 do not wish to contest the relief of permanent injunction prayed for at paragraph 49 (i), 49(ii), 49 (iii) and 49 (iv) of the plaint and he states on instructions that the suit may be decreed to this extent.

7. He states that an affidavit to this effect of defendant nos. 1 to 3 will be filed within one (1) week.

8. In view of the aforesaid no contest by the defendants, the suit for relief of permanent injunction is hereby decreed in favour of the plaintiff and against the defendants in terms of paragraph 49(i), 49(ii), 49(iii) and 49(iv).

9. Defendant Nos. 1 to 3 are directed to file the affidavit within one (1) week.

10. The registry is directed to draw up a decree for the relief of permanent injunction in terms of this order.

11. The suit now remains pending for the monetary relief of damages and legal costs.

12. Learned counsel for the defendants states that in view of no contest at this early stage of proceedings, the plaintiff may consider waiving its claim for damages and legal costs. He submits that since the defendants are a first-time infringer, the defendants may be given the benefit of the judgment of this Court Koninlikje Philips N.V. & Anr. vs Amazestore & Ors¹.

13. Learned counsel for the plaintiff states that he will take instructions.

14. The parties are at liberty to consider an out-of-court settlement in this matter.

15. List on 24.03.2026.
