The case is at the stage of defendant's evidence. Learned counsel for defendant prays for adjournment for leading evidence. On the last date of hearing, it was made clear that last opportunity is being granted for leading evidence. Learned counsel for defendant submits that adjournment is again being sought since the witness is not well and this reason is beyond the control of the defendant. He submits that adjournment slip has been moved which is accompanied by medical certificate of the witness, and that the plaintiffs have already endorsed on the adjournment slip that they have no objection to the grant of adjournment. In view of absence of objection to the plaintiffs, the request for adjournment is allowed and the case is fixed for defendant's evidence, as last opportunity, for 23.09.2022.
