CRL.M.A. 1318/2026 (exemption)

1. Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.

CRL.M.C. 351/2026

2. The petitioner seeks quashing of case FIR No. 172/2022 of PS Mehrauli for offence under Section 279 IPC on the ground that complainant de facto (respondent no.2) has compromised the disputes with the petitioner.

3. As per FIR, the offending vehicle of the present petitioner hit vehicle of the complainant de facto due to which the vehicle of the complainant de facto overturned. But according to the FIR itself, none of the occupants of the car or the complainant de facto suffered any injury and they did not want their medical examination to be done.

4. Learned APP accepts notice and seeks and is allowed four weeks to file status report.
5. It is specifically directed that the status report shall accompany Mechanical Inspection Report of both vehicles.
6. Subject to petitioner taking steps within one week, notice through all modes be issued to the respondent no. 2, returnable on 23.03.2026 before Registrar.
