1. In view of the fact that the lawyers are abstaining from work today, the learned counsel for the parties were specifically queried whether they are willing that the matter be taken up for hearing. Upon their consent, the present matter was taken up for hearing.
2. Learned counsel appearing for the Respondent submits that his client has not been forthcoming in providing documents to determine the use and occupation charges.
3. It is noticed that the Order for placing the documents was passed as early as on 18.02.2026.
4. It is also noted that the Respondent has already taken two adjournments on earlier occasions and today also sought for more time.
5. This Court is of the opinion that the Respondent is only seeking to indulge in dilatory tactics.

6. In view thereof, subject to costs of Rs. 10,000/- to the Delhi High Court Legal Aid Services Committee, the documents be filed and placed on record before the next date of hearing.
