1. As reflected from the order dated 26.05.2023, the counsel for the respondents no. 1, 3 and 4 sought time to take appropriate instructions from the Labour Department, if any payment can be released in favour of the petitioner who is stated to be suffering from various medical ailments which can be recovered subsequently from the respondent no. 10.

2. Mr. Jatin Dua, Advocate for respondents no. 1, 3 and 4 appearing for Mr. Divyam Nandrajog, Panel Counsel stated that as per the instructions received from the concerned Labour Department, there is no such policy where the petitioner can be paid for his medical treatment by the Labour

Department. He further stated that the petitioner has not provided the details of the respondent no. 10 who was stated to be the contractor and the person from whom the expenses for the medical treatment of the petitioner can be recovered by the respondents no. 1,3 and 4.

3. Mr. Nayab Gauhar, Advocate for the petitioner stated that the main counsel Ms. Hetvi Patel, Advocate is stated to be unavailable today.

4. List on 24.07.2024.
