%

WS of D-1 to 3 is not on record.

Counsel for defendants no. 1 to 3 submits that WS has already been filed. He further submits that he checked up with the Registry and on enquiry he has come to know that the same are under objections. He further submits that he will remove the objections and ensure that WS comes on record within a week.

Let the same be done within the time as prayed and defendants must ensure that their WS must come on record positively before the next date of hearing.

Replication to the WS of D-4 not filed by plaintiff till date.

Counsel for plaintiff has already given the statement before the court on 06.07.2017 that he does not intend to file replication to the WS of D-4.

Both the parties have already filed their affidavits for admission/denial of documents. They are directed to produce the original documents in the court on the next date of hearing at the time of admission/denial of documents.

Renotify the matter for completion of pleadings and admission/denial of documents on 21.09.2017.
