C.M. No. 11850/2017 (Correction of memo of parties)

By this application, the appellant seeks correction in the memo of parties. The submission made in the application is that the name of Som Nath was added as respondent No. 2 and he had died in the course of the trial, therefore, the request for deletion of his name from the array of the parties is made. The present appeal has been filed by defendant No. 2/ appellant and defendant No. 1 – Som Nath has been impleaded as respondent No. 2. Counsel for the appellant submits that during the course of trial the defendant No. 1/respondent No. 2 in the present appeal had filed his written statement.

In the facts and circumstances of the case, the correction is sought in the present application. At this stage, counsel for the applicant/appellant seeks permission to withdraw the present application and seeks permission to take steps to implead legal representatives of respondent No. 2. Consequently, the application is dismissed as withdrawn
