Sine die matter

1. This is a suit for partition and rendition of accounts. Summons were issued to the defendants vide the order of the Hon'ble Court dated 21.11.2011.
2. Pleadings were completed in the suit on 07.03.2013. Admission / denial of behalf of defendant was conducted on 10.12.2013.
3. On 10.09.2014, it was observed by the Hon'ble Court that the present suit for partition was based on a will dated 20.03.1952 which was under challenge in another proceedings i.e. civil suit no.415/1996 titled as Shankar Kumar vs. Ram Narain & Ors filed in the District Court at Delhi. The said suit was dismissed vide order dated 03.08.2020 against which a Regular First Appeal bearing no.522/2000 was filed in which order was passed on 27.01.2011. Again the said order dated 27.01.2011, a Special Leave Petition was filed vide which the operation of the order dated 27.01.2021 was stayed. Thus, the suit was adjourned sine die on 10.09.2014 with liberty to the parties to revive the same once a decision was taken in the said civil appeal.

4. Let notice be issued to both the parties, through the registry to be served through all possible modes, returnable on 12.03.2026.
