19.09.2019

1. The counsel for the plaintiff states that though recording of evidence is underway but the term of the commission issued for recording evidence has expired. He further states that the plaintiff, till now has borne the entire expense of the commission and the commission may be renewed only if the defendants are willing to share the expense.
2. The counsel for the defendant no.1 states that the defendant no.1 is not willing to bear such expense.
3. Though the counsel for the defendant no.4 states that the defendant no.4 is willing to share the expense but the counsel for the plaintiff is now having cold feet and states that the further evidence may be recorded before the Joint Registrar.
4. On enquiry, it is informed that the record of commission proceedings is already on the file of this Court.
5. List before the Joint Registrar on 30th September, 2019 for scheduling further dates of trial.
6. The next date before the Commissioner stands cancelled.
