1. The petitioner has approached this Court assailing the judgment dated 03.06.2016 passed by the learned Delhi School Tribunal. Vide the impugned judgment, the learned Tribunal has found that the resignation purported to have been submitted by the respondent was a concocted resignation and therefore, directed the petitioner to reinstate the respondent.
2. Keeping in view the time period which has elapsed since passing of the impugned judgment, it has been put to learned counsel for the parties whether the parties would be willing to enter into an amicable settlement by the petitioner paying sum lump sum amount to the respondent. Both sides pray for time to obtain instructions.
3. List on 24.11.2022.
