CS(COMM) 865/2016

Sh. Shikhar Saha, Adv. (Enrl. No. D/441/2010 at Chamber No.29, Supreme Court, Delhi) has appeared on behalf of defendants and has admitted that defendants were served on 06.08.2016. However he has submitted that copies were supplied to learned counsel for defendants yesterday only and from the same, it transpired that copies are not complete and hence no intimation in this regard could be given to plaintiff or any application could be moved. He has further submitted that in case deficit copies are supplied, he shall file written statement within four weeks from that day. Accordingly, plaintiff is directed to supply deficient copies to learned counsel for defendants during the course of day. Thereafter defendants may file written statement within four weeks with advance copy thereof be supplied to opposite side, who may file, replication, if any, within three weeks thereafter with advance copy to the opposite
