ORDER

% 13.07.2018

Learned counsel for plaintiffs submits that plaintiff company has undergone Insolvency Proceedings and Interim Resolution Professional has already been appointed and due to the said circumstances, the application under Order XIII A CPC could not be filed. She seeks six weeks more time to move the application for summary judgment after seeking due instructions from the concerned quarter. Let the application if any, be filed by plaintiffs within the time as sought and prayed for with advance copy to counsel for defendant.

Counsel for defendant also seeks time to take instructions from his client whether they want to file application for summary judgment or not.

Last and final opportunity is granted to both the parties for filing of application under Order XIII A CPC if they so desire.
