16.09.2019

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that the arrears are not paid either by MTNL or Department of Telecommunications. It appears that the petitioner has been made shuttlecock inter se the MTNL and Department of Telecommunications and for one reason or the other, the arrears of salary which are due and payable to the petitioner, are remaining outstanding.

Let the concerned account departments of MTNL and Department of Telecommunications do the complete exercise to settle the account of the petitioner as regards any arrears as may be payable by the respective departments of MTNL/Department of Telecommunications within four weeks from today failing which the concerned heads of the respective account departments shall remain present before the court.

Compliance affidavit shall be filed a week before the adjourned date.

Dasti, under the signature of the Court Master for both the ld. counsel for the MTNL and Department of Telecommunications.

List on 25.11.2019.
