30.07.2018

1. The petitioner has invoked the writ jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking quashing of the Recovery Certificate dated 13th July, 2018.
2. Learned counsel as above appears on behalf of the respondent/Joint Labour Commissioner i.e. the Authority issuing the Recovery Certificate, on an advance notice of the writ petition being served and submits that the Recovery Certificate dated 13th July, 2018 has been issued on the complaint of 253 workmen, who have not been impleaded as party in this writ petition.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioner makes an oral request for permitting the petitioner to impleade 253 workmen as party, to be served through All India General Mazdoor Trade Union.

4. The request of the learned counsel for the petitioner is acceded to and 253 workmen are allowed to be impleaded as party.
5. The amended memo of parties be filed within one week and thereafter 253 workmen be served through All India General Mazdoor Trade Union by all permissible modes, returnable for 26th September, 2018.
