ORDER

%

1. Though learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the mediation talks are going on inter se the parties and the same has been recorded by the learned Judge, Family Court, East District, Karkardooma Courts, Delhi (learned Trial Court) today in Ex. Crl. 92/2026, however, learned counsel for respondents as also the respondent no.1, present in person, sternly deny the same. In fact, the respondent no.1 has handed over a copy of the order dated 24.07.2026 passed by the learned Trial Court, which, reflects that the application seeking cancellation of non-bailable warrants issued against the petitioner has been dismissed by the learned Family Court and does not mention about the mediation inter se the parties.

2. Learned counsel for respondents further submit that the arrears of more than Rs. 4,00,000/- have already accumulated and the petitioner is not paying a penny to the respondents.
3. Considering the same, in the interest of justice, as a last opportunity, renotify on 14.08.2026.
